HOUSE BILL No. 1046

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning taxation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1       SECTION 1. IC 5-29-3-1.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
2 AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
3 1, 2014]: Sec. 1.5. As used in this chapter, "mortise and tenon
4 barn" means a barn that:

5           (1) was built using heavy wooden timbers, joined together
6           with wood-pegged mortise and tenon joinery, that form an
7           exposed structural frame;

8           (2) was originally placed in service for an agricultural 9           purpose before 1936; and

10          (3) has substantially the same size, design, and construction as 11          the original structure.

12       SECTION 2. IC 5-29-3-4, AS ADDED BY P.L.229-2005,
13 SECTION 4, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE
14 JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 4. (a) The tourism information and promotion
15 fund is established within the state treasury. The fund shall be used for 16 the purposes of this chapter.

HB 1046—LS 6012/DI 58

(b) The fund consists of appropriations from the general assembly and gifts, donations, bequests, devises, and contributions received by the office.

(c) The office shall administer the fund. The following may be paid from money in the fund:

(1) Grants.

(2) Expenses of administering the fund.

(3) Nonrecurring administrative expenses incurred to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) Expenses incurred to promote mortise and tenon barns under section 9 of this chapter.

(d) The money in the fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state general fund but remains in the fund.

(e) The treasurer of state shall invest the money in the fund not currently needed to meet the obligations of the fund in the same manner as other public funds may be invested. Interest that accrues from these investments shall be deposited in the state general fund.

SECTION 3. IC 5-29-3-9 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 9. Before July 1, 2015, the office shall, using only the resources available to the office under P.L.205-2013 and this chapter, develop print and electronic media promoting tourism, visitation, and other hospitality opportunities that feature mortise and tenon barns located in Indiana.

SECTION 4. IC 6-1.1-12-25.2 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 25.2. (a) This section applies in a county in which an ordinance adopted under subsection (c) is in effect in the county for assessment dates occurring:

(1) after the date on which the county fiscal body adopts an ordinance under subsection (c); and

(2) before the date on which the county fiscal body rescinds an ordinance previously adopted under subsection (c).

(b) The following definitions apply throughout this section:

(1) "Eligible applicant" means:

(A) an owner of an eligible mortise and tenon barn; or

(B) a person that is purchasing property, including an eligible mortise and tenon barn, under a contract that:

(i) gives the person a right to obtain title to the property upon fulfilling the terms of the contract;

(ii) does not permit the owner to terminate the contract as long as the person buying the property complies with the terms of the contract;

(iii) specifies that during the term of the contract the person must pay the property taxes on the property; and

(iv) has been recorded with the county recorder.

(2) "Eligible mortise and tenon barn" means a barn that:

(A) is located in a county to which this section applies;

(B) was built using heavy wooden timbers, joined together with wood-pegged mortise and tenon joinery, that form an exposed structural frame;

(C) was originally placed in service for an agricultural purpose before 1936; and

(D) has, on an assessment date, substantially the same size, design, and construction as the original structure.

(c) A county fiscal body may adopt an ordinance to provide a deduction against the assessed value of eligible mortise and tenon barns in the county in accordance with this section. If a county fiscal body adopts an ordinance under this subsection, the county fiscal body shall furnish a copy of the ordinance to the department in the manner prescribed by the department.

(d) An ordinance adopted under subsection (c) may require an eligible applicant to pay an annual public safety fee in an amount that:

(1) equals or exceeds one hundred dollars ($100); and

(2) does not exceed five hundred dollars ($500);

for each eligible mortise and tenon barn for which the eligible applicant receives a deduction under this section. The county auditor shall distribute any public safety fees collected under this section equitably among the police and fire departments in whose territories each eligible mortise and tenon barn is located.

(e) An eligible applicant is entitled to a deduction against the assessed value of the structure and foundation of an eligible mortise and tenon barn for assessments to which this section applies. The deduction is equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the assessed value of the structure and foundation of the eligible mortise and tenon barn.

(f) An eligible applicant that desires to obtain the deduction provided by this section must file a certified deduction application with the auditor of the county in which the eligible mortise and tenon barn is located. The application may be filed in person or by mail. The application must contain the information and be in the form prescribed by the department of local government finance. If mailed, the mailing must be postmarked on or before the last day

1 for filing.

2 (g) Subject to subsection (h) and section 45 of this chapter, the 3 application must be filed during the year preceding the year in 4 which the deduction will first be applied. Upon verification of the 5 application by the county assessor of the county in which the 6 property is subject to assessment or by the township assessor of the 7 township in which the property is subject to assessment (if there is 8 a township assessor for the township), the auditor of the county
9 shall allow the deduction.

10 (h) The auditor of a county to which this section applies shall, in 11 a particular year, apply the deduction provided under this section
12 to the eligible mortise and tenon barn of the owner that received
13 the deduction in the preceding year unless the auditor of the county
14 determines that the property is no longer eligible for the deduction.
15 A person that receives a deduction under this section in a 16 particular year and that remains eligible for the deduction in the 17 following year is not required to file an application for the 18 deduction in the following year. A person that received a deduction
19 under this section in a particular year and that becomes ineligible
20 for the deduction in the following year shall notify the auditor of 21 the county in which the property is located of the ineligibility in the 22 year in which the person becomes ineligible. A deduction under this
23 section terminates following a change in ownership of the eligible
24 mortise and tenon barn. However, a deduction under this section
25 does not terminate following the removal of less than all the joint 26 owners of the property or purchasers of the property under a
27 contract described in subsection (b).

28 SECTION 5. An emergency is declared for this act.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Ways and Means, to which was referred House Bill 1046, has had the same under consideration and begs leave to report the same back to the House with the recommendation that said bill be amended as follows:

"SECTION 1. IC 6-1.1-12-25.2 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 25.2. (a) This section applies in a county in which an ordinance adopted under subsection (c) is in effect in the county for assessment dates occurring:

- (1) after the date on which the county fiscal body adopts an ordinance under subsection (c); and
- (2) before the date on which the county fiscal body rescinds an ordinance previously adopted under subsection (c).

(b) The following definitions apply throughout this section:

(1) "Eligible applicant" means:

- (A) an owner of an eligible mortise and tenon barn; or
- (B) a person that is purchasing property, including an eligible mortise and tenon barn, under a contract that:
  - (i) gives the person a right to obtain title to the property upon fulfilling the terms of the contract;
  - (ii) does not permit the owner to terminate the contract as long as the person buying the property complies with the terms of the contract;
  - (iii) specifies that during the term of the contract the person must pay the property taxes on the property; and
  - (iv) has been recorded with the county recorder.

(2) "Eligible mortise and tenon barn" means a barn that:

- (A) is located in a county to which this section applies;
- (B) was built using heavy wooden timbers, joined together with wood-pegged mortise and tenon joinery, that form an exposed structural frame;
- (C) was originally placed in service for an agricultural purpose before 1936; and
- (D) has, on an assessment date, substantially the same size, design, and construction as the original structure.

(c) A county fiscal body may adopt an ordinance to provide a deduction against the assessed value of eligible mortise and tenon barns in the county in accordance with this section. If a county fiscal body adopts an ordinance under this subsection, the county fiscal body shall furnish a copy of the ordinance to the department in the manner prescribed by the department.

(d) An ordinance adopted under subsection (c) may require an eligible applicant to pay an annual public safety fee in an amount that:

- (1) equals or exceeds one hundred dollars ($100); and
- (2) does not exceed five hundred dollars ($500);

for each eligible mortise and tenon barn for which the eligible applicant receives a deduction under this section. The county auditor shall distribute any public safety fees collected under this section equitably among the police and fire departments in whose territories each eligible mortise and tenon barn is located.

(e) An eligible applicant is entitled to a deduction against the assessed value of the structure and foundation of an eligible mortise and tenon barn for assessments to which this section applies. The deduction is equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the assessed value of the structure and foundation of the eligible mortise and tenon barn.

(f) An eligible applicant that desires to obtain the deduction provided by this section must file a certified deduction application with the auditor of the county in which the eligible mortise and tenon barn is located. The application may be filed in person or by mail. The application must contain the information and be in the form prescribed by the department of local government finance. If mailed, the mailing must be postmarked on or before the last day for filing.

(g) Subject to subsection (h) and section 45 of this chapter, the application must be filed during the year preceding the year in which the deduction will first be applied. Upon verification of the application by the county assessor of the county in which the property is subject to assessment or by the township assessor of the township in which the property is subject to assessment (if there is a township assessor for the township), the auditor of the county shall allow the deduction.

(h) The auditor of a county to which this section applies shall, in a particular year, apply the deduction provided under this section to the eligible mortise and tenon barn of the owner that received the deduction in the preceding year unless the auditor of the county determines that the property is no longer eligible for the deduction. A person that receives a deduction under this section in a particular year and that remains eligible for the deduction in the following year is not required to file an application for the deduction in the following year. A person that received a deduction under this section in a particular year and that becomes ineligible for the deduction in the following year shall notify the auditor of the county in which the property is located of the ineligibility in the year in which the person becomes ineligible. A deduction under this section terminates following a change in ownership of the eligible mortise and tenon barn. However, a deduction under this section does not terminate following the removal of less than all the joint owners of the property or purchasers of the property under a contract described in subsection (b)."
